

NEWCASTLE POLICE DEPARTMENT

General Information Sheet

The Newcastle Police Department has officers on duty 24 hours a day, seven days a week. The officers are normally out patrolling and seldom spend time in the office. We are sorry we missed you at this time.

The Newcastle Police Department is committed to working with residents to keep this community a safe and secure place to live. We hope that the following information will provide you with the information or help you need. You can also visit our website under the police link at www.ci.newcastle.wa.us or call us at the numbers listed below.

REPORT A CRIME, SUSPICIOUS ACTIVITY OR TO TALK TO AN OFFICER:

Call 911 or 206-296-3311 (non-emergency). Officers respond to calls via these numbers. Some reports can be filed over the phone upon request at 206-296-3311. If you have a general question or comment for the Newcastle Police Department, you may call the business line at 425-649-4444.

If the incident occurred in Bellevue, call 425-452-6917. If it occurred in Renton, call 425-430-7500.

ONLINE REPORTING:

Call 911 to report an emergency. You may file some police reports online at www.reporttosheriff.org

HELP RECOVER YOUR LOST OR STOLEN YOUR PROPERTY:

Keep track of your property through www.trackmole.com. Record your serial numbers and your name and email. The police or any other finder may contact you through www.trackmole.com (without your identity being released to non-police) to notify you of your recovered property.

COPIES OF CASE REPORTS (NOT ACCIDENT REPORTS):

Newcastle Police reports are kept in the Records Division of the King County Sheriff's Office, 206-263-2626. If you need a copy of a report, they will need a case number or alternate identifying information (date and time of incident, location, type of case, and names of parties involved). The copy can be picked up at the King County Courthouse or mailed to you. Request a copy online at: <http://www.kingcounty.gov/safety/sheriff/Services/PublicDisclosure/Online%20Requests.aspx>

TRAFFIC ACCIDENTS:

If you were involved in a traffic accident and the police did not investigate it, you can pick up a Washington State Accident Report form at City Hall (or any police station, including the Bellevue PD Factoria Mall substation). After completing the form, it must be returned to the Washington State Patrol – the address is listed on the form in red.

Do not drop the form at City Hall. Alternatively you can access the form online at:

All background checks are done at the King County Courthouse (address on reverse side).

DOMESTIC VIOLENCE:

The Newcastle Police Department is committed to helping victims of domestic violence. If you are a victim of domestic violence, call 911. For general questions or assistance, you can contact the LifeWire (formerly Eastside Domestic Violence) at 425-746-1940 or 1-800-827-8840. For protection orders, see Court Orders below.

COURT ORDERS:

You may obtain protection or anti-harassment orders at Bellevue District Court, 585 112 Ave SE, Bellevue, 206-205-9200, or any other district court. For service of the order, call the Civil Unit at (206) 263-2600. More information on Court orders is available online at: www.courts.wa.gov/forms and <http://www.kingcounty.gov/courts/DistrictCourt/Protection%20Order.aspx>

VACATION HOUSE CHECKS:

If you would like the Newcastle Police to periodically check your house while you are away for an extended period of time, complete a Vacation House Check form. They are available on the city web site (www.ci.newcastle.wa.us) or at City Hall. When out of town, make sure you take the necessary safety steps including, stopping the mail and paper, or have a neighbor pick them up each day. Also, have a trusted neighbor keep an eye on your house and pick up any literature that may be left on your door. House check forms may be submitted online or left at City Hall, a drop box is available when City Hall is closed.

TRAFFIC AND CRIMINAL COURT SERVICES:

Newcastle contracts with Mercer Island Municipal Court for traffic and criminal court services. To find out more information about traffic tickets, warrants and criminal matters you may call the Mercer Island Court at 206-275-7604. They are located at 9611 SE 36th Street, Mercer Island, WA 98040.

TRAFFIC COMPLAINTS:

If you have complaints about traffic problems within Newcastle, such as speeding or vehicles running the stop signs, you may complete a Traffic Investigation Request form to have an officer look into the complaint. Traffic Investigation Request forms are available at City Hall. To help us better serve you, please be as specific as possible about the days, times, and type of the violation.

ABANDONED VEHICLE: If the vehicle in question has been parked on public right of way for a period of 24 hours or longer and you have not reported it previously, please call the KCSO Abandoned Vehicle Hotline at (206) 205-0969 to make a formalized complaint.

If the vehicle is blocking the travel portion of the roadway, is on your property, is suspicious in any way, or appears to have been vandalized or stolen or was originally reported as abandoned more than twenty days ago, please call Dispatch at (206) 296-3311

E-ALERTS:

If you would like to receive emails regarding significant criminal activity or important city information, sign up for E-Alerts. You may sign up on the city web page, www.ci.newcastle.wa.us, or at City Hall.

CRIME PREVENTION / NEIGHBORHOOD BLOCK WATCH:

If you would like to speak to a crime prevention officer or have the crime prevention officer come to speak with your neighborhood block watch, please contact Officer Kathy Decker at kathleen.decker@kingcounty.gov.
